Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Director Casey:

I share your grave concern over the almost daily appearances in the newspapers of stories based on unauthorized disclosures of classified information. I would appreciate it if you would ask your staff to provide to me the answers to the following questions:

(1) How many occurrences of unauthorized disclosures of classified information did the CIA report to the Department of Justice under Section 1.7 of Executive Order 12333 in 1982, 1983, 1984, 1985, and 1986 to date?

(2) How many of the CIA reports to the Department of Justice involved serious or continuing breaches of security which the CIA recommended, as provided in Section 1.7(b) of Executive Order 12333, that the Attorney General refer to the FBI for further investigation?

(3) What types of responses to its reports did the CIA receive from the Department of Justice?

I would appreciate receiving unclassified responses to these questions to the maximum extent possible.

Sincerely yours,
